FOR COAST PORTS .- Waters are SIR Francis Fleming, accompanied by Lady received a most hearty welcome from all classes of the community. Upon landing great enthusizem was displayed. His Excellency, in the absence of Sir William Quayle Jones, being received by Mr J. A. McCarthy, the Queen's Advocate and other members of the Executive and Legislative Councils.

Ligur. Otto E. Ehlers, who has acquired distinction as a traveller and explorer in various parts of the world, and who lately made a remerkable journey on horsebank through India and Indo-China, has arrived here from Bangkok, and is new staying at the Hongkong Hotel. Lieut. Ehlers has apparently taken a special interest in Siem, as he intends, we understand, to pay another visit soon to the Land of the White Elephant. In the meantime, however, he goes North to Peking.

WE regret very much to have to record the death of Lieut. E. M. Loring, of the Royal Engineers, a very popular young officer who will be greatly missed not only by his brother-officers but by many friends in the colony. Mr Loring had been ill for about a mouth, and until two or three days ago it was not supposed that he would not recover, Although he had not been long in the colony Mr Loring was well-known, particularly to those who take an interest in cricket and football, in both of which games he could always give a good account of himself. By his own corps, with whom he was a great favourite, his death is deeply deployed. The funeral took place this afternoon.

WE would remind our renders that Miss Fanny Stanley will take her hencit to-night when the Stanley Company will play Shee.' This popular burlesque is the one is which the Company makes the greatest hit, and not the least striking feature about it is the sprightly acting and tasteful singing of this deservedly popular young sofress. In the drame Struck Gil last night Miss Stanley made another excellent appearance and gave evidence that her conscientions carnestaces is likely to enable her to become an actress of much ability, Mr Driscoll was again prominent in a low somedy character which suited him, and in other respects ' Struck Oil' was treated satisfautorily by the other members of the Company to whom leading parts were entrusted.

Mr. Wodehouse held an inquest to-day into the circumstances connected with the suicide of Hans Hansen Smith, second officer of the steamer Taicheong, on 5th July. The evidence showed that the vessel was to sail at 4 p.m. and that the deceased did not come on board till 2.30 p.m. He was slightly under the in fluence of liquor, and the chief officer remomstrated. with him. Deceased did not appear to be affected by what was said to him. He went into his cabin and a few minutes after shot himself through the head with a to show why he had committed suicide. -Liberals, nine Parnellites and sixty-five a bullet wound self-inflicted during tempor-

Three carpenters who boarded the Elektra. without permission were fined $15 each, with the alternative of a month's imprisonment.

This afternoon Mr Joseph White, who has for several years acted as verger to St. John's Cathedral Church, besides holding other offices in the Colony, was presented with a silver ten service on the occasion of his leaving Hongkong to settle in Australia. The presentation took place in the Masonic Hall, Zetland Street, where a large number of Mr White's friends had assembled to wish him God-speed. Mr. C. W. Duggan presided, and in making the presentation expressed the kindly feeling entertained towards Mr White, who during his stay in the Colony had won the respect and esteem remember him with affection, and in order that he might not forget those left behind, they had resolved to present him with a nonvenir of Hongkong. The tea service bore the following inscription :- Presented to Joseph White by a few friends as a mark of esteem on his leaving Hongkong, July, 1892. Mr White briefly acknowledged the handsome gift.

SUGGESTED LINE TO TAP WESTERN CHINA. The question of tapping the trade of Western Chies, has again engaged the attention of the Government of India. Of the various schemes put forward they favor that of a line from Mandalay through the Northern Shan States to Kunlon Ferry, where great caravana cross the Salween. Mr Bayley will probably be the Engineer selected to make a detailed survey, as he has already been over the ground an furnished reports regarding the route.
